

That the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

Our home receives up to 15-20 calls per day from telemarketers. Simply asking them not to call our home anymore DOES NOT work. When we do receive these calls (Even on Sundays) 1/2 of the time when we do answer, they hang up. I am tired of having my valuable time interrupted by these calls.